NIMONA

by Noelle Stevens

Nimona is an impulsive young shapeshifter and Lord Ballister Blackheart is a villain with a vendetta. As sidekick and supervillain, Nimona and Lord Blackheart are about to wreak some serious havoc. Their mission: prove to the kingdom that Sir Ambrosius Goldenloin and the Institution aren't the heroes everyone thinks they are. But Blackheart soon realizes that Nimona's powers are as murky and mysterious as her past. And her unpredictability might be more dangerous than he is willing to admit.

ONE PUNCH MAN

by ONE and Yusuke Murata

Saitama doesn't look like a hero—from his lifeless expression to his bald head to his unimpressive physique. However, this average-looking guy has a not-so-average problem—he just can't seem to find an opponent strong enough to take on. Every time a promising villain appears, he beats them with one punch. Will Saitama ever find an opponent who can go toe-to-toe with him and give his life some meaning?

WIRES AND NERVE

by Marissa Meyer

Set in the world of the Lunar Chronicles, the story follows Iko, the android with a heart of gold. When rogue packs of wolf-hybrid soldiers threaten the tenuous peace between Earth and Luna, Iko takes it upon herself to hunt down the soldiers' leader. She is soon working with a handsome royal guard who forces her to question everything she knows about love, loyalty, and her own humanity.

FRIENDS WITH BOYS

by Faith Erin Hicks

After an idyllic childhood of homeschooling with her mother and three older brothers, Maggie enrolls in public high school. Maggie's big brothers are there to watch her back, but ever since Mom left it just hasn't been the same. And her attempt to make new friends is further complicated by the melancholy ghost that has haunted her throughout her entire life.

PERSEPOLIS

by Marjane Satrapi

Marjane Satrapi's wise, funny, and heartbreaking memoir of growing up in Iran during the Islamic Revolution. In powerful black-and-white comic strip images, Satrapi tells the story of her life in Tehran from ages six to fourteen, years that saw the overthrow of the Shah's regime, the triumph of the Islamic Revolution, and the devastating effects of war with Iraq.

THROUGH THE WOODS

by Emily Carroll

"It came from the woods. Most strange things do." Emily Carroll's book of five short horror stories explores the psychological horror of isolation and alienation. Her captions and dialogue curl and bend around her characters like sinister tendrils, drawing our eye across the page and into the shadows that lurk under the bed or down the hallway or just outside the front door.

THIS ONE SUMMER

by Jillian Tamaki and Mariko Tamaki

Rose and her parents have been going to Awago Beach since she was a little girl. It's her summer getaway, her refuge. Her friend Windy is always there, too. But this summer is different. Rose's mom and dad won't stop fighting, and Rose and Windy have gotten tangled up in a tragedy-in-the-making. It's a summer of secrets and heartache, and it's a good thing Rose and Windy have each other.
